$32,000 Worth of Seasonable Dry Goods Offered at 50c and 60c on the Dollar

Embracing Silks, Dress Goods, White Goods, Household Linens, Wash Goods and Domestic Goods Bought from Teft, Weller & Co., Who Recently Went Into the Hands of a Receiver

Yesterday's announcement heralded one of the most extraordinary sales of staple merchandise ever known in Washington, involving thousands of dollars' worth of silks, dress goods, white goods, wash goods, household linens and domestic goods bought from Teft, Weller & Co., one of the oldest and best known jobbing houses in America. This firm failed for over five million dollars, and the vast stock was liquidated at very low prices.

The first lots of goods we bought at the Teft, Weller Sale are arriving daily, and are put on sale as fast as we receive them. Every day you will find sensational bargains in staple goods—values that come your way only once in years. As you know, the prices on all cotton goods are steadily advancing—a fact that emphasizes the importance of taking advantage of this opportunity to supply your needs at less than present wholesale market prices.
